MarQ'20 recap; Waihi District PEA a potential re-rate catalyst

MarQ'20 recap: Recently reported full MarQ results included Group production (prereleased, see MarQ production update) of 81koz (CGe 81koz), while sales of 91koz and AISC of US$1,218/oz resulted in reported EBITDA of US$42m. This was higher than our forecasts, largely driven by higher gold sales, following an unexpected ~7koz of dore shipped from Didipio. Net debt was better than prior CGe at US$96m (cash US$177m).

Operational highlights

- Haile Mine sequencing and an extended plant maintenance shutdown contributed to the softer result QoQ, with CY20 production remaining skewed to the H2 on a 2/3 split. AISC are expected to remain elevated in 1H (avg CGe US$1,507/oz), but we estimate these could fall by >30% to <US$1,000/oz in 2H on higher grades and production.
- Waihi Production is now on a 6-month hiatus ahead of batch processing in DecQ'20. Full operations are planned to re-start in mid'21 with commencement of production from Martha UG.
- Macraes Production/cost metrics were in line with our forecasts, but we expect a softer JunQ on COVID-19 impacts (treating low grade stocks). However, an earlierthan-expected resumption of full production activities sees our CY20 expectations lifted slightly to 163koz.
- Didipio While we see dore shipments, diesel delivery (with gov't assistance) and re-endorsement from the DENR/MGB as a possible sign of progress towards FTAA renewal, we note the Philippines Government COVID-19 shutdown may result in further delays. Our assumed production is pushed back to MarQ'21 as a result.

Outlook: CY20 guidance unchanged at 360-380koz at US$1,075-1,125/oz AISC.

Waihi District PEA to confirm asset potential: The Waihi District PEA is on track for release in Q2/Q3, which we expect to outline a long-term production plan for the asset. We believe the combined high-grade Resources of Martha UG and WKP (+2.5Moz at 6.8 g/t) support the potential for a +10-year mine life with production capable of reaching 150-200kozpa at ~US$900/oz LOM avg AISC (CGe from late 2024). We note that the study will be based on existing Resources only, with further Resource upside likely (in our view) as drilling continues. We think the market continues to overlook the potential at Waihi, and as such, see the release of the PEA as a potential share price catalyst.

Model revisions: Updated model assumptions for Macraes (revised for sooner-thanexpected return to full production post COVID-19 restrictions) and a pushback of our assumed Didipio restart to 2021 see 2020 EBITDA estimates 8% lower.

Valuation & Recommendation

Our target (1x fwd curve NPV $_{5\%}$ inc. 75% Didipio risk adjustment) is unchanged at $4.55.

We continue to see significant fundamental value (even after +97% re-rate since Mar lows) being overlooked in favour of Didipio uncertainty and softer short-term production/cash flow. Our risked Didipio valuation represents just 5% of our operating NAV estimate (42% Macraes/Waihi, 53% Haile), and we highlight a much better production and cost outlook for 2021 through development of new UG mines at Waihi and Haile, a possible re-start at Didipio, and potential for a longer life at Macraes from the Golden Point UG (PFS 2H'20). Maintain BUY.

Investment Recommendation

Date and time of first dissemination: May 17, 2020, 16:29 ET Date and time of production: May 17, 2020, 03:12 ET

Target Price / Valuation Methodology:

OceanaGold Corporation - OGC

Net Asset Valuation/target price is derived from a 1x forward curve based NPV5% of operating assets (includes application of a 50% risk adjustment to our Didipio NPV due to ongoing uncertainty), net of corporate and other adjustments.

Risks to achieving Target Price / Valuation:

OceanaGold Corporation - OGC

In our opinion, the key investment risks for OGC include: Geopolitical risk - One of OGC's main assets is located in the Philippines, which is considered an emerging market. In our view, emerging markets have a higher degree of economic, political, social, legal and legislative risk than developed world markets. Geological risk - The actual characteristics of an ore deposit may differ significantly from initial interpretations and expectations. Capital expenditure - The risk that capital and or operating costs exceed budget and/or exhaust available funding before project completion, and reduce the profitability and free cash generation of the project. Commissioning risk - Didipio is completing commissioning and ramping up to full production. As such, there is an elevated risk of not meeting our production targets during the ramp up phase. Operating risk - Gold production from the company's New Zealand operations may be negatively impacted by any disruption to mining and/or technical/mechanical issues with the processing plant. Commodity Price and Exchange Rate risk: As with all mining and mineral exploration companies, commodity price and exchange rate risk should also be considered.

Short-Term Trade Ideas

Research Analysts may, from time to time, discuss "short-term trade ideas" in research reports. A short-term trade idea offers a near-term view on how a security may trade, based on market and trading events or catalysts, and the resulting trading opportunity that may be available. Any such trading strategies are distinct from and do not affect the analysts' fundamental equity rating for such stocks. A short-term trade idea may differ from the price targets and recommendations in our published research reports that reflect the research analyst's views of the longer-term (i.e. one-year or greater) prospects of the subject company, as a result of the differing time horizons, methodologies and/or other factors. It is possible, for example, that a subject company's common equity that is considered a long-term 'Hold' or 'Sell' might present a short-term buying opportunity as a result of temporary selling pressure in the market or for other reasons described in the research report; conversely, a subject company's stock rated a long-term 'Buy' or "Speculative Buy' could be considered susceptible to a downward price correction, or other factors may exist that lead the research analyst to suggest a sale over the short-term. Short-term trade ideas are not ratings, nor are they part of any ratings system, and the firm does not intend, and does not undertake any obligation, to maintain or update short-term trade ideas. Short-term trade ideas are not suitable for all investors and are not tailored to individual investor circumstances and objectives, and investors should make their own independent decisions regarding any securities or strategies discussed herein.
